Notes to the form:

Section	Notes
1	Name of creditor – either natural person, or Company name. If the creditor is a Company, please provide the name and contact details of the primary contact person.
2	Policyholder number – if the creditor is a policyholder, please include the policyholder identification number(s).
3	Date of birth – for natural persons, please provide the date of birth of creditors who are natural persons.
4	Address of creditor – either natural person, or Company name – if the address on record is different to the current address, please include both.
5	Total value of the claim – this should include any interest or accruals (to the extent known). It is to be noted that this notification is not a call to submit claims for distribution purposes. Accordingly, creditors will not be bound by the value of claims stated in this form for the purposes of any distributions.
6	Legal and factual basis for each claim - please set out the legal and factual basis for each claim against the Company's general account. It is requested that creditors provide as much information as possible for the basis of their claims.
7	Reference to any supporting documents which have been used in the valuation of the claim or may substantiate the claim/creditor. This may by way of example be reference to a Policy issued by the Company, or an outstanding invoice which remained unpaid
8	Reference to any additional information / documents which may be provided to substantiate claim.
9	Signature of Creditor or Person Authorised to Act on his Behalf – this signature does not require notary or certification.
10	Name in BLOCK CAPITALS
11	Should the signature on section 7 not be that of the creditor, for example a Director on behalf of a Company, explanation of the authority under which the form is signed should be noted. The JPLs may require further documentary evidence of authority in this regard.
